WILLIAMSTOWN.

Mrs. Bert Hopkins, who has been with her parents in Warren for some time, has returned.

The Rural Good Luck club has discontinued its meetings until some time in May.

Carl W. Seaver was upon the mail carrier's route to-day as substitute for H. S. Drury.

The G. A. R. veterans have been fortunate in securing as their Memorial day speaker, John H. Senter of Montpelier.

Frank Bruce and family, who have been visiting at the home of her father, George W. Savery, have returned to their home in Northfield.

Mrs. James Powers and children, who have been visiting at the home of her father, George W. Savery, have returned to their home in Northfield.

Mrs. H. A. Thurber, who has been ill for some time, is preparing to go to the hospital. Her daughter, Miss Lizzie Miles, is now with her, helping her to get ready.

Congratulations to C. James Cram upon his increase of pension. The real veterans are not so many but that the government can afford to do the fair thing by them.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

There's no substitute for the rule tool. Get the rule tool.

See "Topsy" in her wonderful fire eating cake-walk. At the K. P. and Dokey minstrels.

"Good and Plenty". You will say that it is good, but not plenty, if you attend the Dokey minstrels.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

One of the Best Known Plays in America, "The Man of the Hour."

"The Man of the Hour" which comes to the opera house next Saturday for matinee and night performances, is perhaps the best known play in America, so far as public discussion goes.

Quite apart from its local interest the play is full of breezy fun and sparkling witicism and tells a delightfully human and natural love story. This will be the special company and will include Joseph Harris, Chas. H. Ellwood, Harry J. Gehler, L. C. Phillips, Charles Drake, Edward Riley, Fred Reynolds, Walter Carter, Richard Hogan, John P. Daly, M. J. Underwood, Frank Weston, Peter Digman, George Brantley, Edna Lyman and Marie Casmere.

Mrs. P. J. Finn and daughter, who have been passing ten days with friends in the city, returned yesterday to their home in Poultney.

Talk about your European equilibrist and your double European equilibrist want to see "Little Eva" at the K. P. and Dokey minstrels.

George Broadhurst's enormous success, "The Man of the Hour," is not only a great play, but one of the greatest of the present age. Its wonderful success has set the theatrical world by the ears and it will be in its prime when many of its contemporaries are laid away and forgotten. It comes again to the opera house next Saturday afternoon and night and will be presented by a special company. Tickets now on sale at Kendrick's.

At the Canadian club banquet in the Howland hall April 27, Urban J. Le-doux of Boston will speak on "Hands Across the eSas and Borders."

The following commendation of Mr. Le-doux was recently made: "The secretary of state directs that an expression be sent you of the satisfaction of the department with your report on commerce and industries, which is commended for painstaking and for valuable advice to American exports to Austria."

TALK OF THE TOWN

Children's dress special Saturday at Fitts.

Only three more days in which to license your dog.

Otto coke for sale at Calder and Richardson's, $6.50 per ton.

The reliable Dutchess trousers from the Frank McWhorter Co.

Have your picture framing done at Hooker's. Large line of mouldings to select from.

There's a lot of satisfaction obtained in our new display of Eaton-Cranes linens at Kenyon & Co's. store.

Barre should have a plant to manufacture building granite and not let our neighbors obtain the new industry.

Mrs. Michael Corcoran and daughter, Mary, returned to-day from a few days' visit with friends in Richmond and Burlington.

Mrs. P. J. Finn and daughter, who have been passing ten days with friends in the city, returned yesterday to their home in Poultney.
